Mr. Herbert has represented individuals in grand jury investigations and subsequent criminal proceedings, as well as through interviews in internal investigations. He has led subpoena responses and document productions, including interactions with prosecutors and enforcement lawyers on core investigation processes and findings. Mr. Herbert has also represented individuals in federal district and appellate courts, on matters involving federal statutes regarding racketeering, mail fraud, and health care fraud. In 2017, he briefed, argued, and obtained a reversal of a criminal conviction in the DC Court of Appeals.

Prior to joining Miller & Chevalier, Mr. Herbert was an associate at Paul Hastings, where he specialized primarily in FCPA investigations and international arbitration. In that role, he represented multiple companies in cross-border bribery and compliance investigations and successfully defended a $10 million claim in an insurance coverage arbitration.

After graduating from the New York University School of Law, Mr. Herbert was a clerk for the Honorable Catharine F. Easterly in the District of Columbia Court of Appeals.
