

Miller & Chevalier Named a Top 30 Global Investigations Practice and Boutique of the Year by Global Investigations Review at 2016 Awards Ceremony

09.16.2016

Washington, DC, September 16, 2016 – Miller & Chevalier Chartered proudly announces that the firm was named as one of the top 30 investigations practices globally for the second year in a row in Global Investigations Review's (GIR) GIR 30, an independent guide to the world's best firms for cross-border investigations. The firm placed 11th on a list of top 100 global firms. GIR's top 30 firms include those with particular strength handling sophisticated government-led and internal investigations. According to Global Investigations Review, these are the firms "businesses rely on to investigate problems, handle the fallout, and work with – or defend against – enforcement authorities anywhere in the world," and those that the publication "can recommend as a safe pair of hands for carrying out investigations with an international dimension."

The firm was also recognized by GIR with the Boutique of the Year award, which is given to a smaller firm that acted globally in significant investigations and delivered outstanding outcomes over the past 12 months. In selecting Miller & Chevalier, GIR said the firm had "a stellar past year. The firm consistently lands instructions in the biggest global financial crime cases, including VimpelCom's US$795 million foreign bribery settlement with US and Dutch prosecutors in February."

The awards ceremony took place last evening in New York, NY.

About Global Investigations Review

Global Investigations Review provides global coverage of the ever-changing landscape of government enforcement and regulation. It covers the latest developments in the law and practice of cross-border investigations: anti-bribery and corruption, financial services misconduct, antitrust, fraud, money laundering, tax and more.
