

GIR Live DC

02.09.2016

Washington, DC

Kathryn Cameron Atkinson will co-chair and present at the Global Investigations Review and Just Anti-Corruption half-day conference titled "GIR Live DC" on Tuesday, February 9, 2016 in Washington, DC. From the Yates Memo to Petrobras to FIFA, 2015 heralded a new era of risk for multinational businesses as they face a changing U.S. and global law enforcement picture. This conference will assess the unique challenges facing corporations in this rapidly evolving environment. The conference will feature key speakers from the U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ) and Brazilian Federal Prosecution Office and include the following key topics:

- Petrobras: A New Paradigm for Global Enforcement Risk?
- Upping the Ante: A Fireside Chat with the DOJ's New Compliance Consultant and Tips for Success Post-Yates Memo.
