

2017 Tax Policy Forecast Survey Report

04.06.2017

Miller & Chevalier Chartered and the National Foreign Trade Council (NFTC) today announced the results of their 2017 Tax Policy Forecast Survey, which reveals for the first time in 11 years significant optimism for comprehensive tax reform from leading tax executives at U.S.- and foreign-based companies. To find out when respondents think tax reform might finally be enacted, as well as review the complete results of the survey, please click the report below.

Click Images to View Full Report and Infographic

The information contained in this communication is not intended as legal advice or as an opinion on specific facts. This information is not intended to create, and receipt of it does not constitute, a lawyer-client relationship. For more information, please contact one of the senders or your existing Miller & Chevalier lawyer contact. The invitation to contact the firm and its lawyers is not to be construed as a solicitation for legal work. Any new lawyer-client relationship will be confirmed in writing.

This, and related communications, are protected by copyright laws and treaties. You may make a single copy for personal use. You may make copies for others, but not for commercial purposes. If you give a copy to anyone else, it must be in its original, unmodified form, and must include all attributions of authorship, copyright notices, and republication notices. Except as described above, it is unlawful to copy, republish, redistribute, and/or alter this presentation without prior written consent of the copyright holder.