

FeiFei (Andrea) Ren

SENIOR ASSOCIATE

FeiFei (Andrea) Ren is a Senior Associate in the International Department. Ms. Ren focuses her practice on international corporate compliance, government and internal investigations, and white collar defense for a wide range of domestic and international clients.

Before joining Miller & Chevalier, Ms. Ren was a litigation associate at Ropes & Gray LLP in New York, where she advised clients in civil and criminal government enforcement matters, as well as federal and state litigations. During law school, Ms. Ren worked as a law clerk at Mayer Brown LLP in DC, where she assisted clients in matters involving the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (FCPA) and international trade.

Prior to law school, Ms. Ren was an associate of Mayer Brown's Beijing office, where she primarily assisted the managing partner with litigating and arbitrating disputes under the laws of China and Hong Kong and with liquidating subsidiaries and de-registering representative offices of foreign companies in China. She also has experience in the areas of regulatory compliance and immigration compliance.
