Joshuah R. Turner

ASSOCIATE

Joshuah Turner* is an Associate in the Litigation Department. He focuses his practice on all aspects of government contracts-related compliance and litigation.

Prior to joining the firm, Mr. Turner was an attorney-advisor with the U.S. Department of Energy (DOE) where he advised DOE throughout the procurement lifecycle including defending protests before the Government Accountability Office (GAO). He also served as an Agency Representative during alternative dispute resolution proceedings, litigated cases before the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission and Merit Systems Protection Board, and advised DOE management officials on employee discipline, employee grievances, collective bargaining agreements, performance ratings, and reasonable accommodations.

Prior to his time at DOE, he served as an attorney-advisor with the Defense Logistics Agency (DLA), where he also advised DLA throughout the procurement lifecycle and defended protests before the GAO.

Mr. Turner also serves as a United States Army Reserve Judge Advocate where he is responsible for drafting congressional inquiry responses, advising on federal ethics issues, and serving as the legal advisor for administrative investigations involving equal opportunity, safety, property loss, and soldier misconduct.
