

Connor W. Farrell

LAW CLERK

Connor Farrell is a law clerk in the Litigation department, where he focuses on government contracts-related matters including contract claims and disputes, bid protests, and compliance issues.

Prior to and during law school, Mr. Farrell held various positions at General Dynamics Information Technology. He worked in the company's GWAC Center where he assisted in managing a portfolio of federal contracts, including General Services Administration (GSA) Schedules, Government-Wide Acquisition Contracts, and Agency IDIQs.

While attending law school, Mr. Farrell was a member of the Public Contract Law Journal. He graduated with a J.D. Concentration in Government Procurement Law.

cfarrell@milchev.com
(202) 626-5925

PRACTICES

Complex Civil Litigation
Government Contracts
Counseling & Litigation

EDUCATION

- J.D.
The George Washington University Law School
with honors
2021
- B.A.
Davidson College
2012