

Helen Mitsuko Marsh

LAW CLERK

Helen Marsh is a law clerk in Miller & Chevalier's Litigation department, where she focuses on internal investigations, white collar criminal litigation, and complex civil litigation. During law school, Ms. Marsh focused her studies on litigation. She served as a student attorney in the George Washington Family Justice Litigation Clinic, competed in four Mock Trial competitions, and served as an evidence tutor.

hmarsh@milchev.com
(202) 626-5901

PRACTICES

Complex Civil Litigation
Internal Investigations
White Collar Defense

EDUCATION

- J.D.
The George Washington University Law School
cum laude
2021
- B.A.
Ohio State University
summa cum laude
2017

GOVERNMENT EXPERIENCE

- Law Clerk, Boulder County District Attorney's Office, 2019
- Judicial Intern, Chambers of Judge Carol Ann Dalton, 2019
- Intake Counselor, Prosecution Resources Unit, Columbus City Attorney's Office, 2017

AFFILIATIONS

- Team Leader, Casey Trees Volunteer Tree Planting, 2017 - 2021