

Arrival of Christopher Stagg at Miller & Chevalier Garners Media Coverage in GIR

"People News: OECD Begins Search for New Chair of Bribery Working Group"

Global Investigations Review

10.01.2021

Miller & Chevalier Chartered announced the arrival of Christopher Stagg as Counsel. Stagg was a former senior policy advisor at the Directorate of Defense Trade Controls within the State Department, and joined Miller & Chevalier in Washington, DC, after seven years of working at his own firm handling economic sanctions, export controls and Committee on Foreign Investment in U.S. matters.

News of Stagg's move to the firm garnered coverage in GIR and Trade Law Daily.