

abeaulieu@milchev.com
(202) 626-5922

PRACTICES

FCPA & International Anti-Corruption
Internal Investigations

EDUCATION

- J.D.
Georgetown University Law Center
magna cum laude
2021
- B.A.
William Smith College
magna cum laude
2015

Alexandra Beaulieu

LAW CLERK

Alexandra Beaulieu is a law clerk in Miller & Chevalier's International department. She focuses her practice on matters internal and government investigations related primarily to the Foreign Corrupt Practice Act (FCPA) and other anti-corruption standards.

Ms. Beaulieu received her J.D. from Georgetown University Law Center. Prior to joining Miller & Chevalier, she worked as a legal intern at the International Bar Association on research projects related to human rights, domestic and international climate change litigation and legislation, and sexual harassment legislation. She also assisted with immigration cases in the office of U.S. Senator Maria Cantwell in Seattle.

GOVERNMENT EXPERIENCE

- Intern, Immigrant and Employee Rights Section, Civil Rights Division, U.S. Department of Justice