

Miller & Chevalier Webinar: FCPA Autumn Review 2016

11.18.2016

With enforcement activity under the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (FCPA) on the rise in 2016, we have seen a number of recent developments with important implications for companies conducting business outside the United States. As reported in our FCPA Autumn Review 2016, these developments, which include specific dispositions by the Department of Justice (DOJ) and the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), and an apparent evolution in the agencies' respective priorities, provide valuable lessons regarding corruption risk areas and compliance strategies. Miller & Chevalier's FCPA and International Anti-Corruption Practice held a webinar discussing the following developments:

- Drivers of the recent rise in FCPA enforcement
- Voluntary disclosure – Has the calculus changed in light of the Pilot Program?
- The SEC's evolving enforcement focus and reach
- Compliance lessons from recent enforcement – Fundamentals still apply
- Case study – Och Ziff
