

Inaugural Women's White Collar Defense Association Awards Dinner Gala

12.03.2019

Oxon Hill, MD

Miller & Chevalier is pleased to sponsor the Inaugural Women's White Collar Defense Association (WWCDA) Awards Dinner Gala. The gala, featuring former Deputy Attorney General Sally Yates as Master of Ceremonies, recognizes champions in white collar practice and highlights contributions to diversity, equality, and the advancement of women.

WWCDA promotes the common business and professional interests of women attorneys and other professionals who specialize in the representation of corporations, other organizations, and individuals facing government enforcement actions, internal investigations, compliance, and ethics matters. We promote diversity in the legal profession, facilitate networking and business development, and provide educational programming. WWCDA's initiatives facilitate women connecting, collaborating, and advancing in white collar defense around the world.
