05.28.2020

Miller & Chevalier and Loyens & Loeff will present the webinar, "U.S. and EU Perspectives on Foreign Direct Investment Opportunities and Regulatory Challenges in a Post-COVID-19 World," on Thursday, May 28, 10:00 a.m. EDT/4:00 p.m. CET.

Topics of discussion will include the current state of U.S. and EU foreign direct investment national security controls with an emphasis on the newly expanded powers of the Committee on Foreign Investment in the United States (CFIUS), evolving policies and trends concerning foreign investment originating from China, and how the upcoming U.S. presidential election and the culmination of Brexit may affect those issues.

The panel will feature Gerard Kreijen and Bert Gevers, Loyens & Loeff, and Brian Fleming and Timothy O'Toole, from Miller & Chevalier and will focus on practical steps that prospective investors and multi-national companies in the U.S. and EU should be considering now to prepare themselves to take advantage of investment opportunities while minimizing regulatory risk in the face of an uncertain global economic and political landscape.
