

Election Naming Marc Gerson as Chair of Miller & Chevalier Covered in CityBizList, Washington Post, and Other Publications

"Miller & Chevalier Elects New Leadership"

CITYBIZLIST

06.21.2017

Tax Member and Department Vice Chair Marc Gerson's election to serve as Chair of Miller & Chevalier, which is effective July 1, was covered by CityBizList. "Marc is an incredibly talented, thoughtful lawyer who has served in a number of leadership roles in his career, and he is an excellent choice to lead Miller & Chevalier as the firm closes in on its 100th anniversary in 2020," said outgoing firm Chair Anthony F. Shelley. "I have great confidence in Marc's dedication to and vision for the firm, and know he will continue to build on our past accomplishments as he leads us into the future." Gerson has a long history of leadership at Miller & Chevalier. After starting as an Associate in 1995, he rejoined the firm in 2007 after serving as Majority Tax Counsel to the U.S. House of Representatives Committee on Ways and Means. He has served as Chair of the Lawyer Development Committee and as a member of both the Compensation and Nominating Committees, in addition to his current position as Vice Chair of the Tax Department. "My fellow Members and I appreciate Tony's diligent and successful stewardship of the firm over the past several years," Gerson said, "and I am honored to be selected to serve as the next Chair of Miller & Chevalier's Executive Committee."

Other publications covering the firm's new leadership and Gerson's election to serve as Chair include Bloomberg Big Law Business, The Deal Pipeline, National Law Journal, Politico, Tax Notes Today, Washington Business Journal, and the Washington Post.