

Miller & Chevalier Receives Multiple Practice and Individual Rankings in the 2019 Edition of Chambers USA

Firm Receives First and Only Band 1 Ranking for Government Relations: Specialist Tax Firms

05.03.2019

Washington, DC, May 3, 2019 – Miller & Chevalier Chartered today announced that the firm received multiple practice and individual lawyer rankings in the 2019 edition of Chambers USA. The firm was recognized nationally in seven practice areas and in the District of Columbia in three practice areas. There were 23 firm lawyers ranked across those practices.

As in years past, the firm continued to receive high practice and individual lawyer rankings in Tax, Litigation, Corporate Crime & Investigations, FCPA, Employee Benefits and Executive Compensation, ERISA Litigation, and International Trade. In addition, the firm received the first and only Band 1 ranking in a new, separate nationwide Government Relations category for Specialist Tax Firms. Chambers called the firm a "specialist tax boutique regarded as the preeminent firm for tax policy matters" that "boasts enviable experience in dealing with Congress, Treasury, and the IRS."

"We are pleased to have so many of our lawyers and practices consistently recognized year after year and are particularly excited about the new Band 1 Government Relations ranking as a Specialist Tax Firm," said Marc J. Gerson, Chair of Miller & Chevalier. "These accolades demonstrate the trust our valued clients place in us to help resolve their most difficult and sensitive matters." Full rankings and editorial commentary are available here.
