

Jason Workmaster Provides Update Regarding the Civil False Claims Act on Federal News Network's "Off the Shelf"

"Off the Shelf: The Civil False Claims Act: Key Trends in 2021"

FEDERAL NEWS NETWORK

02.11.2021

In this discussion, Jason Workmaster, Member at Miller & Chevalier, discussed the decline in False Claims Act (FCA) recoveries over the last decade and predicted an upswing in FCA activity on the part of the government and the Justice Department. He highlighted a growing set of compliance requirements as potential areas of risk for government contractors, and how a change in administrations will likely lead to greater interest in enforcement activities. In addition, Workmaster provided insights on the FCA's legal framework and how a more conservative judiciary may impact FCA litigation. For the full interview, click here.