

2016 Latin America Corruption Survey

08.04.2016

Miller & Chevalier Chartered and 13 partner firms today announced the release of the 2016 Latin America Corruption Survey. Despite more than three-quarters of businesspeople indicating that their country's anti-corruption laws are ineffective, the survey shows marked signs of regionwide improvement in corporate compliance measures.

Click images to view full report and infographic

The information contained in this communication is not intended as legal advice or as an opinion on specific facts. This information is not intended to create, and receipt of it does not constitute, a lawyer-client relationship. For more information, please contact one of the senders or your existing Miller & Chevalier lawyer contact. The invitation to contact the firm and its lawyers is not to be construed as a solicitation for legal work. Any new lawyer-client relationship will be confirmed in writing.

This, and related communications, are protected by copyright laws and treaties. You may make a single copy for personal use. You may make copies for others, but not for commercial purposes. If you give a copy to anyone else, it must be in its original, unmodified form, and must include all attributions of authorship, copyright notices, and republication notices. Except as described above, it is unlawful to copy, republish, redistribute, and/or alter this presentation without prior written consent of the copyright holder.