

GIR Privilege Know-how 2021 – United States

GIR PRIVILEGE KNOW-HOW

12.17.2021

We are pleased to announce that Andrew Wise and Katherine Pappas authored the United States chapter in the 2021 edition of Global Investigation Review's (GIR's) Privilege Know-how. The GIR Know-how series is designed to help practitioners better understand critical issues across multiple jurisdictions. In their chapter, Wise and Pappas discuss issues relating to privilege in the United States, including the scope of the privilege, protected parties, ownership of the privilege, enforcement considerations, and termination of the privilege.

GIR Privilege Know-how 2021 – United States is an extract from the 2021 edition of GIR's Privilege Know-how, first published in December 2021. The whole publication is available here.