

23rd Annual U.S. and Europe Tax Practice Trends Conference

03.30.2023 - 03.31.2023

Zurich, Switzerland

Lisandra Ortiz and Loren Ponds* will speak at the 23rd Annual U.S. and Europe Tax Practice Trends Conference on March 30-31, 2023, in Zurich, Switzerland.

On March 30, Ortiz will present, as part of a panel, "Managing Uncertainty in Transfer Pricing: Evolving Methods and Current State of APA Play." This panel will explore the post-pandemic sources of transfer pricing uncertainty and identify and compare the methods available to taxpayers for managing that uncertainty from a practical perspective.

On March 31, Ponds will Co-Chair the "Government Panel." This panel will discuss the various pressures their tax administrations face, such as the dual-sided nature of digitalization both on taxpayer practices and government customer service, the ongoing strain arising from tax disputes, and the political and technical demands arising from international tax reforms.
