

18th Forum on the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act Houston

01.23.2025

Houston, TX

Nate Lankford will speak at the American Conference Institute (ACI) 18th Forum on the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (FCPA) Houston on January 23, 2025. Lankford will present, as part of a panel, "The Future of ESG in the Energy Sector: U.S. and State-Level Compliance Hurdles, the Energy Transition and the FCPA Interplay." This panel will discuss:

- The impact of the U.S. election on SEC enforcement
- Complying with California and other state-level requirements for the "E" and "G"
- The interplay of new EU reporting requirements
- How comprehensive ESG initiatives, including third-party due diligence, can mitigate potential liabilities and enhance corporate resilience
- Quantifying the financial implications of ESG commitments including strategies for managing risks when ESG goals are not achieved
- How analytics and AI can enable organizations to identify and manage anti-corruption and ESG risks
- Key considerations for developing a best-in-class ESG program

RELATED PRACTICES

Business and Human Rights

FCPA & International Anti-Corruption

International

RELATED PEOPLE

Nate Lankford

RELATED LINKS

Conference Website