

2007 Employee Benefits Conference

09.12.2007

Miller & Chevalier

Miller & Chevalier hosts its 2007 Employee Benefits Conference, to be held Wednesday, September 12, 2007 in Washington, DC. The event will be held at Miller & Chevalier's offices, 655 Fifteenth Street, NW, Suite 900, and will run from 9:30 a.m. until 2 p.m., with lunch provided. Space is limited for this event, so RSVP early to events@milchev.com. Include your name, company and contact information, and indicate that you are attending the DC Benefits Conference. Topics scheduled for discussion include the following:

DC Benefits Conference Agenda

Health and Welfare Plans: Managing a Variety of Risks and Opportunities

- HSAs, Medicare RDS, new cafeteria plan regulations, state health reforms

Qualified Plans

- PPA: Getting ready for the next installment of PPA changes, impact of technical corrections
- Cash balance plans: Not out of jail yet
- 401(k) fees: What's happening on the 401(k) fee front

Executive Compensation

- Section 409A: Coming down the home stretch
- Executive compensation/employment tax audits: What to expect when the IRS comes knocking

RELATED PRACTICES

ERISA & Employee Benefits Litigation

Employee Benefits

Employee Benefits Policy

Executive Compensation

Government Affairs

Health, Welfare & ACA Compliance

Litigation

Qualified Plans

Tax

RELATED PEOPLE

C. Frederick Oliphant