

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

DEFERRED PROSECUTION AGREEMENT

1. In connection with an investigation, the Division of Enforcement ("Division") of the United States Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission") alleges that Tenaris, S.A. ("Respondent" or "Tenaris"), in or about 2006 through 2008, violated Sections 13(b)(2)(A), 13(b)(2)(B) and 30A of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Exchange Act") by making payments to certain Uzbekistani government officials in order to secure an improper advantage in the bidding process for Uzbekistani government contracts and by failing to keep accurate books and records relating to those transactions, and by failing to maintain internal controls to ensure that the transactions in Uzbekistan were properly authorized by management and that the financial statements were prepared in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles ("Investigation"). Prior to a public enforcement action being brought by the Commission against it, without admitting or denying these allegations, Respondent has offered to accept responsibility for its conduct and to not contest or contradict the factual statements contained in Paragraph 6 in any future Commission enforcement action in the event it breaches this Agreement. Accordingly, the Commission and the Respondent enter into a deferred prosecution agreement ("Agreement") with the following terms and conditions:

TERM

2. The Respondent understands and agrees that the provisions of this Agreement are in full force and effect from May 17, 2011 to May 17, 2013 ("Deferred Period"), unless expressly stated otherwise.

COOPERATION

3. The Respondent, a corporation organized and operating under the laws of Luxembourg and its subsidiaries ("Related Entities") agree to cooperate fully and truthfully in the Investigation and any other related enforcement litigation or proceeding to which the Commission is a party (the "Proceedings"), regardless of the time period in which the cooperation is required. In addition, the Respondent agrees to cooperate fully and truthfully, when directed by the Division's staff, in any other related official investigation or proceeding by any U.S. federal, state, or self-regulatory organization ("Other Proceedings"). The full, truthful, and continuing cooperation of the Respondent and Related Entities shall include, but not be limited to:

a. producing, in a responsive and prompt manner, all non-privileged documents, information, and other materials to the Commission as requested by the Division's staff, wherever located, in the possession, custody, or control of the Respondent or any of its Related Entities; and

b. using its best efforts to secure the full, truthful, and continuing cooperation, as defined in Paragraph 4, of current and former directors, officers, employees and agents, including making these persons available, when requested to do so by the Division's staff, at its expense, for interviews and the provision of testimony in the investigation, trial and other judicial proceedings in connection with the Proceedings or Other Proceedings.

4. The full, truthful, and continuing cooperation of each person described in Paragraph 3 above will be subject to the procedures and protections of this paragraph, and shall include, but not be limited to:

a. producing all non-privileged documents and other materials as requested by the Division's staff;

b. appearing for interviews, at such times and places, as requested by the Division's staff;

c. responding to all inquiries, when requested to do so by the Division's staff, in connection with the Proceedings or Other Proceedings; and

d. testifying at trial and other judicial proceedings, when requested to do so by the Division's staff, in connection with the Proceedings or Other Proceedings.

STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS

5. The Respondent agrees that the running of any statute of limitations applicable to any action or proceeding against it authorized, instituted, or brought by or on behalf of the Commission arising out of the Investigation ("Proceeding"), including any sanctions or relief that may be imposed therein, is tolled and suspended during the Deferred Period.

a. The Respondent and any of its attorneys or agents shall not include the Deferred Period in the calculation of the running of any statute of limitations or for any other time-related defense applicable to the Proceeding, including any sanctions or relief that may be imposed therein, in asserting or relying upon any such time-related defense.

b. This agreement shall not affect any applicable statute of limitations defense or any other time-related defense that may be available to Respondent before the commencement of the Deferred Period or be construed to revive a Proceeding that may be barred by any applicable statute of limitations or any other time-related defense before the commencement of the Deferred Period.

c. The running of any statute of limitations applicable to the Proceeding shall commence again after the end of the Deferred Period, unless there is an extension of the Deferred Period executed in writing by or on behalf of the parties hereto.

d. This agreement shall not be construed as an admission by the Commission relating to the applicability of any statute of limitations to the Proceeding, including any sanctions or relief that may be imposed therein, or to the length of any limitations period that may apply, or to the applicability of any other time-related defense.

STATEMENT OF FACTS¹

6. If this case had gone to trial, the Commission would have presented evidence sufficient to prove the following facts:

Tenaris, S.A.

a. Tenaris, S.A. was a corporation organized under the laws of Luxembourg. Tenaris was a global manufacturer and supplier of steel pipe products and related services. Tenaris's ADS's were listed on the New York Stock exchange and Tenaris's stock was listed on the exchanges of Argentina, Italy, and Mexico. Tenaris had annual revenues of $9.9 billion in 2007 and $12 billion in 2008, and had more than 24,000 employees worldwide. Tenaris, and through its 17 subsidiaries, operated in 12 countries and its customers included the world's leading oil and gas companies, as well as engineering companies engaged in constructing oil and gas gathering, transportation, and processing facilities.

b. Tenaris's operations included steel pipe sales in the Caspian Sea region, including Uzbekistan. The Caspian Sea region accounted for an average of approximately 5% of Tenaris's global oilfield services sales and approximately 1% of Tenaris's total global sales and services from 2003 to 2008. Tenaris did not have an office in Uzbekistan. Its Caspian Sea business was run from offices in Azerbaijan and Kazakhstan.

c. Tenaris obtained steel pipe sales in the Caspian Sea region in part by bidding on contracts solicited by government-owned companies, private companies or quasi- governmental entities to provide pipeline used in the development and production of oil and natural gas. Tenaris often used agents to assist in bidding on contracts in the Caspian Sea region. Among other services, those agents provided Tenaris with access to information and people that helped it tender bids that had a greater likelihood of being awarded by the governmental entities soliciting them.

OAQ Contracts 2006-2007

d. Between in or around April 2006 through May 2007, Tenaris bid on a series of contracts with OJSC O'zashqineftgaz ("OAQ"), to supply OAQ with pipeline for use in the development and production of oil and natural gas in Uzbekistan. OAQ was a subsidiary of Uzbekneftegaz, the state-owned holding company of Uzbekistan's oil and gas industry.

e. OAO was an agency and instrumentality of the government of Uzbekistan and its employees were "foreign officials" within the meaning of Section 30A(f)(1)(A) of the Exchange Act.

f. In or around December 2006, Tenaris was introduced to a potential agent ("Agent") to help Tenaris bid on certain contracts with OAO. As an incentive to retain the Agent, the Agent offered Tenaris's then-regional sales personnel access to the confidential bid information of competitors obtained from officials in OAO's tender department, who also would allow Tenaris to submit revised bids. Tenaris's then-regional sales personnel would use the confidential competitor bid information to submit revised bids in order to increase the likelihood of Tenaris being awarded the underlying contract.

g. In or around January 2007, Tenaris entered into an agreement with the Agent to use its services in bidding on OAO contract M-07-53. Tenaris agreed to pay the Agent a commission of 3.5% for its services related to that contract.

h. In or around February 2007, Tenaris bid on contract M-07-53, utilizing the Agent's services, which included obtaining confidential bid information of Tenaris's competitors through OAO officials and thereafter submitting a revised bid to OAO through its officials who were cooperating with the Agent.

i. On or about April 30, 2007, Tenaris was awarded contract M-07-53 based on its revised bid. Pursuant to the terms of contract M-07-53, OAO agreed to pay Tenaris $2,719,720 for pipe used in oil and gas development in Uzbekistan.

j. Between in or around April and May 2007, Tenaris bid on 3 additional contracts with OAO utilizing the Agent. In bidding on those contracts, Tenaris's then-regional sales personnel again obtained the confidential bid information of its competitors from OAO officials and submitted revised bids to those officials utilizing that confidential bid information.

k. As a result of Tenaris's then-regional sales personnel's use of the bid information of its competitors, Tenaris was awarded contracts M-07-70, M-07-71 and M-07-72 on or around May 22, 2007. Tenaris agreed to pay the Agent a 3% commission for its services related to contracts M-07-70, M-07-71, and M-07-72.

l. OAO agreed to pay Tenaris $1,499,367 under contract M-07-70, $6,378,657 under contract M-07-71 and $8,797,980 under contract M-07-72, for pipe and related services.

m. Tenaris paid the Agent commissions for its services related to contracts M-07-53, M-07-70, M-07-71 and M-07-72. In making such payments, Tenaris made use of the means and instrumentalities of interstate commerce in furtherance of such payments, including a payment to the Agent on or about July 2, 2007, via same day transfer of approximately $32,140.67 through an intermediary bank, Wachovia Bank NY International, utilizing routing number xxx9 and account number 3xxxxxx1.

n. Tenaris's then-regional sales personnel understood that a portion of the commission Tenaris paid to the Agent for services related to contracts M-07-53, M-07-70, M-07-71 and M-07-72 would be used to pay OAO officials for opening competitors' bids, providing confidential bid information to Tenaris, and replacing Tenaris's original bids with its revised bids.

o. The conduct of the OAO officials in providing Tenaris with confidential bid information and allowing Tenaris's then-regional sales personnel to resubmit revised bids was in violation of the OAO officials' lawful duty and was done in order to assist Tenaris in obtaining or retaining business in Uzbekistan.

p. According to e-mails written by Tenaris's then-regional sales personnel, in or around November 2007, the Agent informed Tenaris's then-regional sales personnel that Tenaris's competitors in Uzbekistan had complained to an Uzbekistani government agency, Uzbekexpertiza JSC ("Uzbekexpertiza"), that Tenaris had obtained access to competitor bid information for contracts M-07-70, M-07-71, and M-07-72.

q. Uzbekexpertiza was an agency and instrumentality of the government of Uzbekistan and its employees were "foreign officials" within the meaning of Section 30A(f)(1)(A) of the Exchange Act.

r. Uzbekexpertiza had the authority to cause an investigation of the bidding process in which Tenaris bid for contracts M-07-70, M-07-71, and M-07-72.

s. According to e-mails written by Tenaris's then-regional sales personnel, in an effort to avert the potential investigation of the bidding process, the Agent recommended that Tenaris and the Agent pay Uzbekexpertiza officials to refrain from recommending an investigation against Tenaris or re-opening the bidding process to Tenaris's competitors.

t. Certain e-mails suggest that Tenaris's then-regional sales personnel agreed to pay the recommended payment to Uzbekexpertiza officials by the end of December 2007 in order to avert an investigation into the bidding process of contracts M-07-70, M-07-71, and M-07-72. It is unknown whether Tenaris ever made any such payment, and Tenaris has found no records evidencing any payment.

u. The agreement among Tenaris's then-regional sales personnel to pay the payment to the Uzbekexpertiza officials as recommended by the Agent was described by Tenaris's then-regional sales personnel as having been made to assist Tenaris in obtaining or retaining business in Uzbekistan.

v. In the summer of 2008, the M-07-70 contract and all outstanding portions of the M-07-72 contract were cancelled. In total, OAO paid Tenaris approximately $2,697,598 on the 07-53 contract, $4,585,312 on the 07-71 contract, and $1,651,663 on the 07-72 contract. Tenaris's combined profits on OAO contracts M-07-53, M-07-71, and M-07-72 were approximately $4,786,438.

w. In or around 2007, the books, records and accounts reflecting Tenaris's transactions related to the OAO contracts, which involved payments to OAO foreign officials, were incorporated into Tenaris's consolidated year-end financial statements for the respective year.

x. In or around 2007, Tenaris failed to make and keep books, records, and accounts which accurately and fairly reflected Tenaris's transactions with the agent described above, and which failed to accurately record the payments to OAO officials.

y. In or around 2007, Tenaris's system of internal controls failed to detect or prevent payments to OAO officials in an effort to obtain and retain business in Uzbekistan, including a failure to ensure that proper and effective due diligence was conducted on the Agent for the OAO contracts, and that the review process for authorization or approval of payments to the Agent failed to detect or prevent the illegal payments to OAO officials. Tenaris's policies, procedures and training related to anticorruption and the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act ("FCPA") compliance in place at that time warranted further strengthening to ensure effective compliance with the related laws.

z. In or about March 2009, a third party disclosed to Tenaris that it had become aware that certain sales agency payments made by Tenaris may have improperly benefited employees of the third party. In response to that information the Audit Committee of Tenaris's Board of Directors retained Sullivan & Cromwell LLP to investigate the allegations. Thereafter, in a Form 20-F filed with the Commission on or about June 30, 2009, Tenaris disclosed the customer's allegations, Tenaris's internal investigation, and that it had informed staff of the Division and Department of Justice ("DOJ") about the allegations by the third party.

aa. In or about July 2009, counsel for Tenaris met with the staff of the Division and Department of Justice ("DOJ"), and disclosed preliminary findings of the internal investigation. Such disclosure was not related to the facts concerning transactions in Uzbekistan. Tenaris counsel informed staff of the Division and DOJ that it would conduct a more detailed internal investigation, and would report its findings to the staff.

bb. Tenaris's internal investigation included a world-wide investigation of its business operations and controls. Beginning in or about July 2010, Tenaris counsel met with the staff of the Division and DOJ to disclose facts related to its internal investigation. Tenaris provided extensive, thorough, real-time cooperation with the staff of the Division and DOJ which included timely, voluntary and complete disclosure of certain conduct, including the facts described above. As a result of its internal investigation, Tenaris discovered facts and transactions in Uzbekistan which Tenaris included in the report provided to the staff. Tenaris also thoroughly reviewed its pre-existing compliance program and undertook steps to update and improve its compliance program, and to continue to implement enhanced compliance measures. These steps included, in part, adoption of a strengthened Code of Conduct, Business Conduct Policy, and Agent Retention Procedure that address anticorruption and compliance with the FCPA, and provide for enhanced due diligence procedures related to the retention of third party agents and review of payments to third party agents. Tenaris has agreed to provide real and meaningful cooperation with the Commission, DOJ and any law enforcement agency in connection with this matter.
